

ODHA Student Council Oral Cancer Screenings Video/PowerPoint® Competition

What are the guidelines for this competition?

The PowerPoint® or video is an informal presentation using oral communication and visual media to inform, clarify, and present information on Oral Cancer Screenings.

The information should include: Oral Cancer Screening Protocols, Role of the Dental Profession and Risk Factors

Criteria for preparing your Video/PowerPoint®

- Must focus on Oral Cancer Screenings
- Research topic thoroughly and have reference documentation available
- Communication should be clear and easy to understand
- Visual material must effectively reinforce the knowledge of risk factors or oral cancer, the importance of early screenings and review the oral cancer screening techniques
- Prepare handouts or brochure to outline, summarize or supplement your video
- Motivational interviewing style must be utilized

Rules and Regulations for Video/PowerPoint® Presentations

Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will disqualify the Video/PowerPoint® from active competition and will not be judged.

1. All Video/PowerPoint® submissions must be completed by student members of the ADHA at the time of application. Registered/licensed hygienists are not eligible to participate in the Student Video/PowerPoint® Competition. Up to 4 students are allowed for each Video/PowerPoint®.
